Herter-Gromyko Discuss Possible Berlin Solutions

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter met with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko today to find out if there is any basis for continuing negotiations for a Berlin agreement.

Taking the lead for the West in the Big Four negotiations, Herter met with Gromyko after consulting with his Western colleagues.

Herter had talked for 30 minutes with Foreign Secretary Solwyn Lloyd of Britain, French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville, and Ambassador Wilhelm Grewe of West Germany.

Gromyko showed some signs of willingness to lower his price for ending the Soviet threat to West Berlin temporarily.

Other Soviet spokesmen said the one-year deadline is negotiable and indicated the Soviets might agree to a longer period of Western occupation. Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin at a press briefing called on the West to make counterproposals so that the negotiations could proceed.

The Western foreign ministers, however, remained adamantly opposed to any deadline of their own making. The former German capital, U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter told the foreign ministers' conference that the Western occupation rights were not granted by the Soviets and "they are not rights which the Soviets can cancel, assign or modify."

Suit Filed by UA Professor Against Act 10

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A University of Arkansas music teacher, yesterday filed suit in Pulaski Chancery Court testing the constitutionality of Act 10 of 1958, the state teacher affidavit law.

Max Carr, an associate professor of music, seeks in his action a ruling that the law conflicts with both the Arkansas and federal constitutions.

The controversial law was upheld as constitutional by a three-judge federal court here Monday. The court ruling on a suit by B. T. Shelton, Little Rock Negro teacher, declared unconstitutional a provision of Act 115 of 1953, which bars public agencies from hiring a member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Act 10 requires teachers to file affidavits stating organizations to which they have belonged or contributed in the past five years, before they can be employed by a state-supported institution.

Carr also asked for a restraining order against enforcement of the law. He is one of several University of Arkansas faculty members who refused to sign an affidavit and who have protested the act.

Farm Bureau Exceeds Goal of Members

Hempstead County Farm Bureau has exceeded its goal of 831 members, says Charles W. Key, County President who says Farm Bureau operates on the theory that government should be administered from the local level, he said.

Farm Bureau is important to you in your business of farming since there are so many problems that cannot be solved unless we have organized action, Mr. Key said. Membership to date is, 836.

Hugh Laseter, 67, Dies Wednesday in Local Hospital

Hugh Laseter, aged 67, a longtime resident of Hempstead County, died yesterday in a local hospital.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ethel Laseter, a son, John T. Laseter, of Texarkana; two daughters, Mrs. Horace Pyle of Hope and Mrs. Howell Baker of Emmet; a brother, Pete Laseter of Hope and a sister, Mrs. O. T. Weeks of Waco, Texas.

Services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Friday at Shover Springs Baptist Church by the Rev. Wesley Thompson and the Rev. Edward Evans. Burial by Herndon Cornelius Funeral service will be in Shover Springs Cemetery.

McClellan Urges a Labor Bill Passage

WASHINGTON (AP)—If Congress hasn't the courage to pass a labor control bill "then God save the country," Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), told a House labor subcommittee yesterday.

McClellan, Senate Rackets Committee chairman, urged the House to join the Senate in passing legislation strong enough to "drive the crooks and racketeers out of the labor movement."

The Arkansas Democrat said he would prefer something stronger than the Kennedy-Edwin bill passed earlier this year by the Senate.

McClellan specifically urged the subcommittee not to delete the so-called "labor bill of rights" provision written into the bill by the Senate under his prodding. The provision is designed to give rank-and-file members a greater voice in union affairs.

Retirement for County Workers Soon

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An estimated 4,300 employees of Arkansas' 75 counties will be blanketed into the state retirement system on July 1.

B. E. Friday, executive secretary of the Employment Retirement Board, who made the admittedly "rough guess" on persons affected, said he didn't have any idea what the total amount of money involved would be.

However, it will be approximately eight per cent of the state-wide county workers' overall payroll.

The 1959 act, which extends the retirement system to county employees, says their contributions shall be four per cent of their annual compensation up to maximum yearly pay of $6,000. Few of those affected are paid more than $6,000 a year.

The county matches his contribution, equally making a total equal to eight per cent of the pay paid to participants.

Whatever the total may prove to be, the prospect has been such as to cause some private grumblings among county judges and other officials who have to watch the county treasuries. The four per cent will take a considerable bite out of county funds.

The retirement Board may have assuaged the hurt somewhat when it recently laid down a regulation that part-time employees, defined as those working less than 1,000 hours a year—would not be covered.

Constitutional officers—that is, elected county officials—may participate or not as they wish.

The retirement system for state employees was set up in 1937 and broadened by the 1959 Legislature to include county employees.

The County employees may retire under the same conditions as laid down in the original acts for state employees.

There are various options, but broadly an employee may retire at age 60 after 20 years service and must retire at age 70, receiving retirement pay in the latter instance if he has had as much as 10 years service.

The retirement pay formula is based on 1.25 per cent annually of average compensation multiplied by number of years service up to a maximum of 35. There is a reduction in the annual rate to three-fourths of one per cent on some earlier interrupted employment.

The public employees affected by the new act also are covered by federal Social Security.

No Resistance Claimed by the Defense

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (P)—The defense claimed today that a 19-year-old Negro teen offered no resistance to the four white youths accused of raping her.

The lawyer for William T. Collinsworth, 23, one of the defendants, told an all-male jury in his opening defense statement: "She stated you can have it if you want it, if you take me back to school."

Atty. S. Gunter Toney added: "It is a close question whether or not consent was given."

The state has accused the four youths of forcibly raping the girl after abducting her at gunpoint from her Negro date of the evening.

Toney told the jury that Collinsworth was "insanely drunk when he and the three white companions happened upon the victim parked in the car with her date and another couple the night of May 2."

The attorney said the white boys stopped because someone suggested they break up this necking party.

Denver Youth Is New Spelling Champ

WASHINGTON (AP)—Jodi Montgomery, 12, of Denver, Colorado, today won the 32nd annual National Spelling Bee.

He defeated runner-up Robert Crossley, 12, of Canton, Square, Pa., to become the first boy national champion since 1954.

Jodi successfully spelled the word "transcend" after Robert missed it. Then under the rules he successfully negotiated one more word, "catamaran" to clinch the championship.

New Arkansas Law Affects Slow Drivers

By LEON HATCH

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—It becomes legally possible today to be arrested in Arkansas for driving too slow as well as for driving too fast.

Actually no one is in danger of getting a ticket for poking along until after minimum speed limits have been fixed.

A 1959 legislative act, effective today, permits local authorities and the Arkansas Highway Commission to set such a limit.

The idea is to speed up traffic and prevent congestion by requiring driving at a reasonable speed.

Provision for minimum speed regulations is contained in a traffic code adopted by the recent Legislature.

The code, along with other acts not bearing an emergency clause, becomes effective 90 days after adjournment of the Legislature. That's today.

Another innovation in the code prohibits right turns on a red signal light unless there is a direct, long arrow on the light.

And the speed limit in cities is raised to 30 miles an hour. It has been 20 in business districts and 25 in residential districts.

Another traffic-related new law as designed to regulate operation of motor scooters. Among other provisions, it requires that operators be licensed either by a regular driver's permit or by a special permit for too young to receive a driver's license. No one under 15 years old is supposed to operate a scooter.

Other "non-emergency" law becoming effective today probably will affect fewer people than the traffic code does but they seem to have attracted more public notice.

Among these is the widely discussed act fixing patient quotas for the University Medical Center. The center already has set up policies and procedures to effectuate the law.

Another new act provides heavy penalties for false bomb warnings—a measure inspired by the rash of reported impending dynamiting of schools and other public buildings in the wake of the school integration controversy here.

Other new laws include several directly inspired by the resistance to school integration as well as an act requiring the labeling by race of donor of blood used for transfusions.

One new law sets up a revised pupil assignment plan based on an Alabama act which the U.S. Supreme Court ruled valid on its face.

Two others provide for payment of educational funds directly to pupils who change schools to avoid integration and to pupils who change schools to avoid integration and to pupils whose schools are closed against integration. These two laws are only temporary measures pending a vote in November, 1960, on a proposed constitutional amendment which would make it possible for school districts to shut down public schools and give money directly to students rather than accept integration.

Prosecuting Attorney Royce Weisenberger calls attention to the new Arkansas Hot Chick Law which carries a stiff penalty for giving a check without enough money in the bank. . . . It does not allow 10 days to make good as the old law did. . . . checks over $50 returned for insufficient funds or any other reason are a penitentiary offense and smaller checks after one or two previous offenses, become penitentiary offenses. . . . checks given for wages or services that are returned for insufficient funds under the new law likewise are violations.

City Police report some $8 was taken sometime yesterday from a soft drink machine at Miller-Reese Station at Main and Third. . . . officers said the machine had apparently been left unlocked as it wasn't jammed a bit.

Rebels Give Up in Nicaragua, Will Be Tried

By JACK RUTLEDGE

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (AP)—The government announced today that more than 40 rebels surrendered today and are being brought to Managua, probably for trial.

These rebels raised a white flag Wednesday night and offered to give up their fight against the Nicaraguan government. They surrendered to the National Guard near Fruta de Pan (Guanacaste), not far from Santo Domingo, in South Nicaragua.

The government demanded their unconditional surrender after reflecting an offer by the insurgents to get out of the fight if given safe conduct out of the country.

Encouraged by eyewitness reports of rebel disintegration, the commander of Nicaragua's armed forces, Gen. Anastasio Somoza, said he thought the 45 would surrender today. They face trial, with nine-year prison terms; the maximum penalty possible.

Two newsmen who visited the rebel band and brought out their spokesman said 10 of the group refused to give up and marched off into the mountains to continue their defiance of Gen. Somoza and his brother, President Luis Somoza.

According to government reports, the 16 holdouts are the biggest contingent still trying to fight the Somozas. Somoza claims another planeload of about 40 rebels who landed from Costa Rica nearly two weeks ago has been split into groups of twos and threes and is no longer a threat. Rumors of additional invasions have not materialized.

Despite the government's claims and the "eyewitness" report, a Nicaraguan rebel radio heard in Honduras, said insurgents killed 88 Nicaraguan National Guardsmen in fighting for the town of Boaco, some 60 miles northeast of Managua. The broadcast added that newly acquired planes were bringing ammunition and weapons to the rebels in the border area.

The newsmen who went deep and on foot to reach the rebel band were Mario Blasetti of the Columbia Broadcasting System and Rogelio Caparros of the Havana magazine Bohemia. They found them in the jungle about 100 miles east of Managua.

The newsmen said the insurgents were in pitiful condition, tired, hungry, frightened and eager to give up. They had not eaten for two days and had marched steadily for 25 hours.

Their leader, Pedro Joaquin Chamorro, scion of a prominent publishing family in Managua, let his comrades vote on whether to continue the fight.

All decided to surrender except Chamorro and 15 others, including Luis Gonzaga Cardenal, member of another prominent Nicaraguan family. They dubbed themselves fifth columnists and marched into the mountains.

The rest raised the white flag—a bed sheet on a long pole.

The rebels delegated Father Federico Arguello, a young Roman Catholic priest who had joined them as chaplain, to negotiate on a new contract in the National Guard, Nicaragua's army. The priest told Guard headquarters the men would give up if their lives were spared and they were allowed to leave the country.

The three-year contract in the industry expires June 30. It is an agreement on a new contract reached by them, 500,000 union members will almost certainly strike in plants that produce 60 per cent of the nation's steel.

Contract negotiations, which have been held on and off since May 5, continue here today. The union is demanding a substantial, but unspecified, wage increase; a cut in the 40-hour work week, and other benefits. Current basic wages average $3.03 an hour.

1,000 Attend
Negro Church
Meet Here

Negro Baptist Churches of Hope are hosts this week to the statewide consolidated Sunday School and BTU Congress now in progress at Yerger High School. Some 1,000 are in attendance.

Fifteen study courses are being offered in religious education. Dr. T. T. Guy, Little Rock, president of the Consolidated State Baptist convention, preached the introductory sermon Wednesday.

Today the President, Dr. R. S. Sherry of Hot Springs delivered his annual address. The election of officers was to follow. The Congress Parade was to be held at 2:30 p. m. today. The Youth and Usher Board will give public demonstrations during the afternoon.

The Rev. T. P. Johnson, El Dorado, vice-president, will deliver the annual sermon at the night session.

Promotion exercises will be held Friday night.

Court Receives
Election Appeal

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court yesterday received an appeal of a ruling declaring that Keith Wentz of Springfield was elected to the Washington County Republican Central Committee last August.

R. B. Cox, committee chairman, and Ulys A. Lovell, a member, filed the appeal, contending that no candidate received a majority of votes in the August 9, 1958, election.

Washington Circuit Court ruled in Wentz's favor on his plea that he be declared elected.

M. S. Bates, Hope, was top representative May, announces Frank Whitbeck, resident of Pioneer Western Life Insurance Co., this is the second consecutive month and the third month in 1959 that he has won this honor. . . . he received a trophy.

HELP POLICE — More than 450 boy scouts are helping Detroit, Mich., police search for missing Susan Lawrence, a 14-year-old high school freshman, who has been missing since June 8. Susan left home saying she was going to the library to study and has not been seen since. The scouts are Mark Shook, Roger Brown, Charles Tobias, and Lowell Seyburn. In center, rear, is Scoutmaster Sidney Seyburn.

Steel Industry Overture Is Rejected

NEW YORK (AP)—The steel industry has made an overture quickly rejected by the union that the industry drop its insist on a one-year wage freeze. The union would make specific concessions on other contract terms.

That leaves the United Steelworkers of America and the industry still deadlocked less than three weeks from a strike deadline.

The industry proposed eight contract changes which it said would increase efficiency and reduce waste.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator and executive vice president of the U.S. Steel Corp., said with acceptance of the proposals would mean a major economic progress which could be shared by the employees; the stockholder and the public.

Immediately after industry negotiators made the proposal Wednesday, USW President David J. McDonald turned it down and called it "industrial blackmail."

Industry continues to "insist upon this ill-conceived program," McDonald told newsmen, such insistence can have but one purpose. That purpose is plain. For reasons of their own, the leaders of the industry want to force a showdown in steel.

Faubus leaves today on a week-long speaking tour. He speaks to the Alabama Legislature in Montgomery, Ala., later tomorrow. He will address the Mississippi State Bar Assn. in Biloxi Saturday, Monday and Tuesday, he will attend an Interstate Oil Compact meeting in New Orleans.

Tuesday night the governor will speak at a peach festival in Ruston, La., before returning to Arkansas.

Thoughtless
'Fire' Cry
Stirs Saenger

Tragedy was narrowly averted at Wednesday matinee in the Saenger theater when some thoughtless Negro patron in the balcony shouted "Fire!" Manager Henry Seamonson shouted today.

What actually happened, Mr. Seamonson said, was this: A small aisle-light popped and went out. Someone shouted "Fire!" and the crowded house started to stampede.

Mr. Seamonson rushed to the balcony and ordered everyone to sit down. This stemmed the panic — and no one was hurt.

The theater manager said he had been unable to find the person who shouted "Fire," but pointed out that this thoughtless shout could easily have killed or injured the hundreds of children who were in the theater.

Actually there never was any danger, and the theater itself is fire-proof. The burned-out lamp burst and expired, but there wasn't any fire, Mr. Seamonson said.

"The word 'fire' is simply never used in a theater or any other public building where there is a big crowd," the theater manager continued. "If there is really a fire you can bet your life the management will be the first to know about it, and will arrange for orderly evacuation of the building so no one gets trampled to death. The alternative is a wild panic — all because some ignorant person shouted 'Fire!' when there wasn't any."

The classic example of human stupidity was the Frodo theater fire in Chicago in 1903, when the patrons stampeded and 602 persons were trampled to death.

Pulaski School Board Selects 3 New Members

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Three extreme segregationist supporters of Gov. Orval E. Faubus who were ousted from the Little Rock School Board last month were replaced today by men who have taken no active part in the school integration controversy here.

Cautious statements from two of the appointees seemed to indicate that the three moderate members who were retained on the board may have picked up allies.

Three holdover members, while identifying themselves as segregationists, have said they would rather see some degree of integration "hope" than have the public high schools closed, as they have been since last September.

The new board members are J. H. Coltrane Jr., a lawyer and loan company executive and a Pulaski county representative; B. Frank Mackey, a retired police detective and now an insurance company employee; and H. L. Hubbard, a building contractor.

They were named by the Pulaski County Board of Education to succeed Board President Ed I. McKinley Jr., Robert W. Laster and Ben D. Rowland, who were recalled from the board at a special election on May 25.

Coltrane, 41, and the father of boys eight and 10, said after his appointment was announced that he was "very much in favor of public schools."

Coltrane added that he also had been "very strongly in favor of segregation" but declared that he did not subscribe to a statement attributed to a segregationist leader here during the heated recall campaign that he, the segregationist, would "rather be ignorant and uneducated than to go to school with Negroes."

Coltrane was not a friend of Faubus in the Legislature. He was active in defeat of a bill which would have permitted the governor to name three new members to the School Board then even deadlocked between Faubus supporters and three members the governor once denounced as "integrationists."

Mackey said merely that "I believe in the public school system." Mackey is 64 and the father of two daughters and a son, all now past public school age. He retired from police work after 20 years.

Hubbard could not be reached for comment. He is the only one of three with a child of high school age. He has a son, 16 next month, who attends Roney High School, a private all-white school set up with Faubus' blessing after the public high schools were closed. Hubbard, 46, also is the father of a 12-year-old daughter who attends a public junior high school.

Bulletin

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—A small black cloud, described as a tornado touched down on the southeast edge of Pine Bluff today and destroyed a residential garage.

John Cook, elderly Negro, who owned the garage, said he was looking out a window of his house when a black funnel came out of the northeast and "dipped down kind of quick and took my garage with it."

Debris of the structure was strewn about 100 yards from its site.

The incident occurred shortly after noon. No other damage was reported.

BOSTON (AP)—A terrific explosion from an unidentified source knocked down parts of an overhead elevated rapid transit structure beside the North (railroad) Station today. Some 25 to 30 persons were injured, first official reports said.

Reports from the scene said there probably also were some dead.

The North Station is the main terminal for the Boston & Maine Railroad. It is one of the most heavily congested traffic and business section.

RUSSIA ON WHEELS—(1) Getting Around Moscow

Any estimation of Soviet Russia's strength must take into account the state of its transportation systems. These are arteries feeding its economic sinews. Moscow is the showcase of Russian urban transportation. View of important Gorky Street, left, shows there is no parking problem in Moscow. Cars are numerous, however—an estimated 100,000 for a population of five million. But elsewhere in Russia they are rare.

The most popular four-cylinder model costs about $3,000; waiting time is up to two and a half years. Driver's license examination is stiff, as are punishments for serious traffic violations.

Chief means of transportation in Moscow is a network of suburban trolleys, something that has largely disappeared from U.S. cities. Moscow streetcar at right is not much different from its American counterpart.

Flash Flood Isolates Few Families

ROGERS, Ark. (AP)—A flash flood isolated several families in rural areas near Rogers early today and caused damage estimated at thousands of dollars. No one was injured.

Authorities said Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Easter and their four children fled their home in the Prairie Creek community about five miles east of Rogers when water poured into the house through windows.

The Easters took refuge on higher ground of their farm in the Prairie Creek valley and returned when the water receded several hours later.

A hard rain drenched the area for about two hours before the Easter family was forced out of the house. The floodwaters came from the Cook Creek which runs through part of the valley and drains into Prairie Creek.

At least one other farm residence in the Prairie Creek Community was isolated for awhile by the creek spillover and half a dozen families were cut off in the Glade Community some 15 miles east of Rogers.

Rogers itself had an unofficial 24-hour rain in two hours but no flooding occurred in the city.

There were no reports of flood-damaged property in Glade.

Benton County sheriff's officers and Arkansas Highway Department crews went into the flood area to give aid to families requiring it.

The water receded rapidly and by mid-morning all danger of isolation was over.

County Judge Colin Patton got reports that many bridges and culverts in the Prairie Creek-Glade area were washed away. A firm estimate of monetary damage could not be made immediately but it was believed the total would run into the thousands.

Squeezed Heart to Keep Man Alive

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—For almost 2½ hours human hands squeezed and released the failing heart of a Miami dentist and kept him alive until he could rally.

Quick action by the brother of Dr. Raymond J. Smith, 45, was credited today by medical authorities with saving the dentist's life in what was described as one of the most remarkable cases of its kind on record.

Smith should recover and may return to his practice, said Dr. Robert S. Litwak, chief of thoracic surgery at the University of Miami Medical Center at Jackson Memorial Hospital.

The incident occurred Saturday but was not publicized until Wednesday night. Hospital attendants said Smith returned home from water skiing and complained of chest pains. His wife called his brother, Dr. Donald W. Smith, who is a surgeon, who sent him to the hospital.

The brother opened his brother's chest cavity and began massaging the heart. Litwak and others joined him. The heart showed a faint pulse, then began to beat rhythmically.

Centennial Board Members Named

LITTLE ROCK, (AP)—Six members of the Arkansas Civil War Centennial Commission were appointed yesterday by Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

Mrs. Arthur F. Triplett of Pine Bluff was named commissioner at large. Others representing the six congressional districts in the state are Mrs. C. M. Young of Helena, Ralph R. Red of Harrison, Judge James Pilkington of Hope, Sam Dickson of Little Rock and County Judge J. L. Erwin of Arkansas City.

Faubus also appointed Earl Causey of Star City to the state

Welfare Board, to succeed Mrs. Howard Mays of Paragould who resigned. Gaylen B. Price of Harrison was reappointed to the Apitry Board.

Garroted Body of Man Found in Well

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A garroted body found in an abandoned well near here yesterday was tentatively identified today as Harris G. Sharpe, 63, of Hot Springs, and authorities said he had been murdered.

The badly decomposed body was identified by laundry marks on clothing.

Coroner Dr. D. C. Lee said "There is no question but that the man was murdered and thrown into the well."

The body had wounds on the head and a sock was drawn tightly around the neck. Police said it had been in the well 10 days to two weeks.

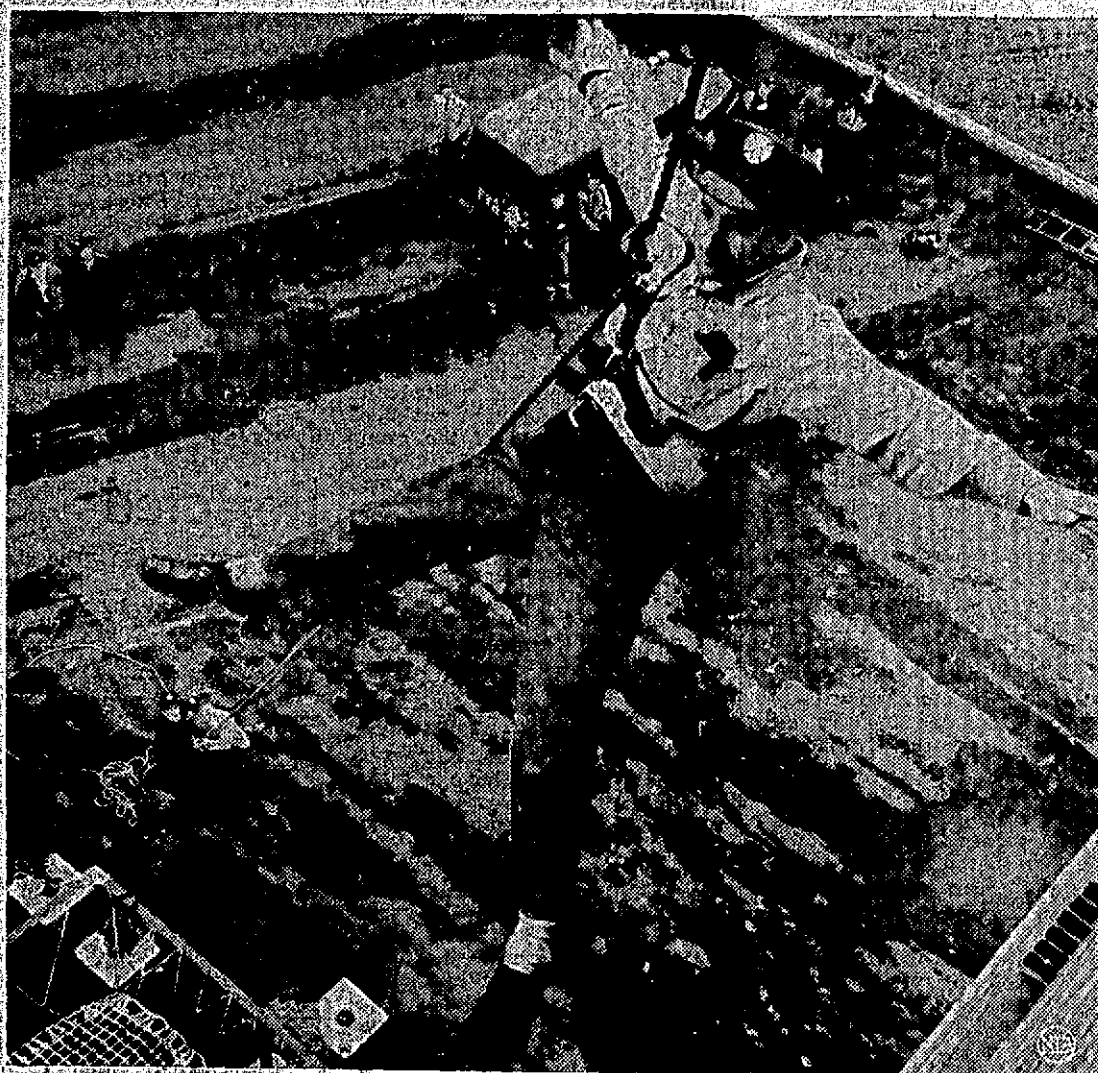

Sheriff Leonard Ellis said Sharpe was last seen the night of May 20. Ellis said witnesses reported Sharpe was involved in an argument with unidentified persons that night. Later, he said, a car was seen driving away from Sharpe's rooming house with its lights off.

Postman Carl M. Deaton, reported Sharpe missing after the retired World War I veteran failed to claim a pension check which Deaton was to deliver to him.

Ellis said laundry marks of in California while her husband stars in the State Fair musical production, "Pajama Game."

"She couldn't come to see the show, but I'll bring the show to her," Laine said Tuesday. "The phone company is working out a way to connect our sound system to a phone and relay the show to Nan."

Money Arrives for River Bridge

LITTLE ROCK, (AP)—Two checks, totaling more than seven and a half million dollars were received by the state of Arkansas yesterday for construction of a Mississippi River bridge at Helena.

State Treasurer J. Vance Clayton deposited a $7,134,000 check from the federal Housing and Home Finance Agency.

Also received was a $500,000 check from Mississippi, representing half of the one million dollars it has pledged for the bridge. The other half of Mississippi's share is to come from federal matching funds.

Total cost of the new bridge is estimated at $12,300,000.

Receipts for the Housing and Home Finance Agency funds complete a transaction agreed upon by the agency and the Arkansas Highway Commission last year. The check was dated Jan. 1 and the $131,000 represents interest from that date.

The bridge is being built under a two-state agreement.

clothing on the body and those on clothes found in Sharpe's room were the same. Fingerprints also will be checked, he said.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The garroted body of an elderly man was found in an abandoned well near here yesterday.

Authorities said they believed the unidentified body had been in the well from 10 days to two weeks. It bore wounds on the head and a sock was drawn tightly around the neck, police said.

A man searching for lost cattle found the body, officers said. The well is near ruins of a farmhouse which burned several years ago.

Where Do Good Teachers Go?

Many are leaving the campus for jobs in industry. Not because they want to... but because it's the only way they can make both ends meet.

This is an alarming trend! If it continues, our children can look forward at best to a second rate education. And, by the same token, it bodes ill for our country.

Won't you help in this crisis? Support the college of your choice. Help it to pay competent teachers a respectable salary. The rewards will be greater than you think.

Hoffa's Rule of Teamsters in Jeopardy

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—James R. Hoffa faces an unhappy choice today: Either way, his continued rule of the big Teamsters' union is in jeopardy.

Under a new court order, Hoffa must either lead a thorough cleanup of his union or face a possible jail sentence for contempt.

If the tough-talking Hoffa espouses reform, bringing disciplinary and auster proceedings against some of his closest lieutenants as ordered, he loses support of key men who helped him move to the union's top job.

Hoffa continues to balk at union reforms—only recently he said there was no Teamsters' corruption to investigate—he's bound to run into the tolls of the federal courts.

That is the dilemma facing Hoffa, 46, as the result of a U.S. Court of Appeals ruling Wednesday. The court held unanimously that Hoffa and his union, the nation's largest claiming 1,600,000 members, must knuckle down to reforms recommended by court-appointed monitors.

Guilty of Stomping Cellmate to Death

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—A Miller Circuit Court jury yesterday found an ex-oil field worker guilty in the stomping death of his jail cellmate.

It set the punishment of Curly Vines, 49, of Magnolia, at life imprisonment.

Vines was charged in the fatal beating and stomping March 5 of Ray Walker, 37, of Tyler, Tex., while they were in the Texarkana city jail.

Police Chief Max Tackell said Vines had referred to Walker as "a damn stool pigeon" who was always trying to snitch to the cops.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. McWilliams in July.

Two Local Ladies to Visit Abroad

Among local people who will enjoy trips abroad this summer will be Mrs. T. S. McDavitt, who will leave for the east coast on June 16. From there she will go to France, where she will visit Col. and Mrs. James C. Cross and their two sons. Mrs. Cross will be remembered as the former Miss Leona Routon.

Mrs. W. O. Beene is going to Germany and will leave on June 17 with Mrs. A. W. Gissing of Lockport, La., and their two grand children. After visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Beene in Germany, the children will remain with their parents. Mrs. Beene and Mrs. Gissing will tour in Europe before coming back home.

All the travelers from Hope plan to be gone about six weeks.

Coming and Going

Carolyn Strong and Virginia Ann Hays of Prescott spent Saturday in Little Rock and were the overnight guests of Miss Nancy Neathery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shiver and Mrs. J. S. Gibson returned Mrs. Ronnie Nations and son, Jay, to their home in Kingsport, Tenn., last week. On their way back to Hope they went sight-seeing in Charleston, S. C.

Following her graduation from Randolph-Macon in Lynchburg, Va., Miss Ginnane Graves returned to Hope, while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Graves, went on to New York City and will visit Mr. and Mrs. Wade Hitt.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Connelly of Marion, Ind., and Mrs. Georgia Foster of Carey, Ohio, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lewis.

Billy Lynn Tranum of Wilson arrived Wednesday and is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Robins until his wedding on Saturday to their daughter, Sandra.

Mrs. D. B. Russell, Jr., has returned to her home in Dallas, Texas, after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrell. Her son, Randy, remained with his grandparents for another week.

Miss Kay Kent is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kent, before she returns to the University of Tennessee.

DOROTHY DIX

Golden Silence Can Save Her Treasured Household

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a happily married woman with a really wonderful husband and two darling children. I have committed a sin against them that should never be forgiven. I allowed myself to be drawn into an intimate relationship with another man. No one knows of this affair except this man and myself. I tell my husband and I know he will divorce me. It would serve me right. I know, but I couldn't live without my husband and children. Should I confess everything to him and hope that he'll understand and forgive? Your answer will be considered with great respect. Although I showed none toward my devoted husband, incidentally I'm not pregnant. A Reader

Dear Girl: You committed the sin; why make your husband and children suffer for it? For the rest of your life you'll have a weight on your conscience, but carry it alone. Let the rest of your life be a constant atonement to your family and don't ever, ever be tempted to drag another human soul into your confidence. Unless it be a clergyman. Your secret is safe with me; let it be safe with you.

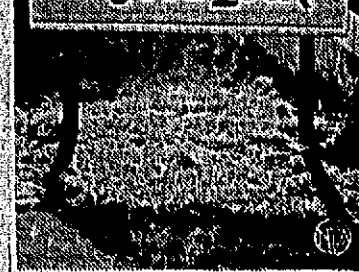

Dear Dorothy Dix: My father is a wonderful man. He works hard all week, gives practically all his money to us, never drinks or gambles. He has a wonderful sense of humor and is very understanding about all our problems. He's handy around the house, fixes everything, and isn't the least bit lazy. We are very proud about it, but talking does no good out with us. You see, he will not dress up. He says clothes don't make the man and he hates to dress up. We've spoken to him about it, but talking does no good. Also, he's inclined to be loud. We realize these are his only faults.

Dear Dix: Well, as you say, no one is perfect, but your Dad comes as close to perfection as anyone I know. Practically any woman would overlook one or two idiosyncrasies for all the advantages your family possesses. Since he's so generous to you all, give some of this money to buy him some of the special occasions and remember Father's Day. Buy casual wearing apparel that will look tidy but not give a "dressed-up" look. Slacks, sports shirts, sweaters are quite acceptable on practically any occasion nowadays and they'll keep Dad comfortable.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm 14 years old and have an older sister. My housework, pay bills, shop, etc. I

Gene Conley, Braves' Castoff, Wins Another

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

From their pitiless depth, maybe Milwaukee's Braves made a mistake when they ended Gene Conley's rebellion by peddling the right-hander to Philadelphia.

They've lost seven of their last 12 games, with only three complete games from their staff in that span. And Wednesday night they lost their second in a row, 5-2, at St. Louis, reducing their National League lead to one game while Conley was beating Los Angeles 2-1 with a four-hit effort.

Conley, who was peddled after an 0-6 season because he refused to quit his winter job with professional basketball's champion Boston Celtics, has lost as many as he's won (3-3), but that's not bad for a pitcher with a last place club.

While the Braves continued to stumble, second place San Francisco closed in with an 11-7 victory at Pittsburgh. Cincinnati defeated the Chicago Cubs 6-4.

In the American League, Rocky Colavito tied a major league record with four home runs in one game for Cleveland as the Indians knocked Baltimore out of a tie for first, 11-8. The Chicago White Sox resumed full command with a 4-1 victory at Washington. New York beat Kansas City 6-4 and Detroit defeated Boston 10-9.

Conley gave up nothing but singles, walked only one, and struck out two in a duel with loser Danny McDevitt (3-6) and Clem Labine.

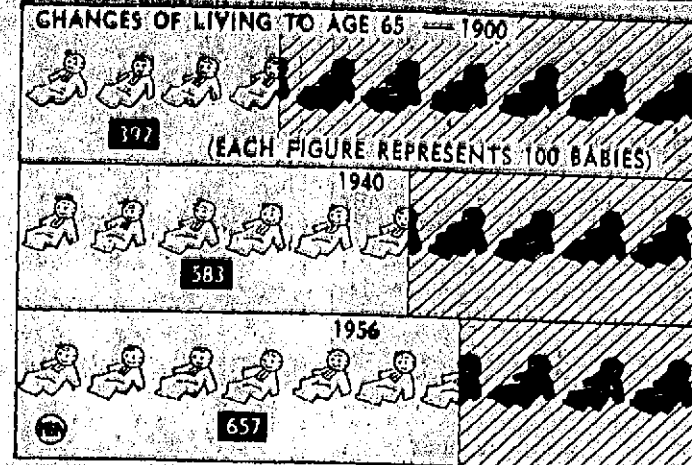

The Braves scored in the first two innings on home runs by Hank Aaron (16) and Del Crandall (8), but the Cards came from behind for three unearned runs in the fifth on an error. Manager Solly Hemus' pinch double and two-out two-baggers by Gino Cimoli and Bill White. Bob Rush (7-2) was the loser.

Alex Kohnen (2-1) was the winner with Lindy McDaniel's relief help over the last four frames.

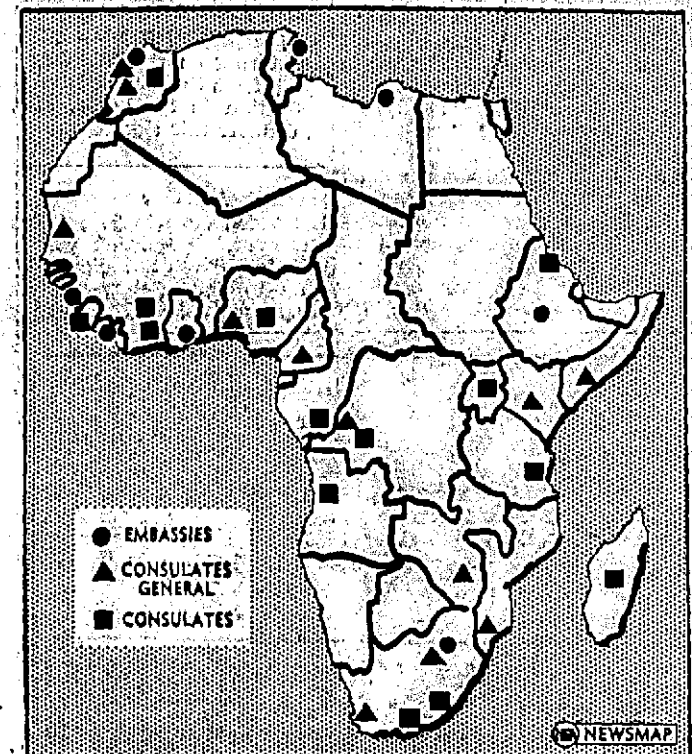

Willie Kirkland and Orlando Cepeda homered for the Giants, who cracked six Pirate pitchers for 19 hits. Winless George Witt lost his fifth. Sam Jones (7-5) won his fourth in a row.

Solo homers by Roy McMillan and Frank Robinson in the last two innings clinched it for the Reds. Bob Purkey (6-7), beat the Cubs for the first time since 1955. He allowed only four hits, but gave away to reliever Orlando Pena because of a blistered finger in the eighth. Glen Hobbie (6-6) was the loser for the Cubs.

RISE IN GENERATION—Children born in the United States today have an excellent chance of living well into the 21st century. Chart above shows how the predicted life span for baby boys has increased dramatically since the beginning of the century. In 1900, according to data from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., 657 out of every 1,000 could expect to live until at least age 65. The outlook is even better for girls; 802 out of 1,000 will live to 65.

Colavito Makes Believers of Fans

BALTIMORE (AP)—Rocky Colavito made believers out of the Orioles fans even the hickies. The Cleveland outfielder was given a rousing cheer when he took his right field position in the ninth inning Wednesday night after hitting his fourth consecutive home run to tie a major league record.

The 25-year-old slugger had been booed earlier in the game by rabid Baltimore fans and one heckler tossed beer on Rocky as he chased down a fly ball hit by Billy Killebrew in the second inning.

Colavito said he was "pretty mad" after the beer thrower scored a bullseye.

"But when I took the field in the ninth," Rocky said, "I looked over and there was the same guy waving at me."

Games Tonight Depend on Weather

Colavito Ties a Record With Four Home Runs

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Baltimore's Memorial Stadium is the toughest home run park in the majors. In the five years it has been a big league ballpark, only seven visiting sluggers had hit as many as two home runs in one game there. No one had hit three in one game.

Yet that's where Cleveland's Rocky Colavito tied a major league record Wednesday night by becoming the eighth player ever to hit four in one game. He also became only the third to do it with successive shots, tagging drives of 300, 400, 400-plus and 425 feet as the Indians blasted the Orioles out of the AL lead 11-8.

Colavito, 25, now has hit 18 for the season, one behind league leader Harmon Killebrew of Washington. These were his first of the year against three right-handed pitchers. Colavito, a right-handed slugger, has hit all but three of his 18 off right-handers.

With Baltimore jolted loose from a deadlock, Chicago's White Sox took a one-game lead in the AL by beating Washington 4-1. New York climbed above .500 for the first time since April 25 by defeating Kansas City 6-4, gaining control of fourth place by one percentage point over Detroit, despite a 10-9 Tiger victory at Boston.

In the National League, Milwaukee's lead was cut to one game with a 5-2 loss at St. Louis while second place San Francisco won 11-7 at Pittsburgh. Cincinnati beat the Chicago Cubs 6-4, and Philadelphia defeated Los Angeles 2-1.

Colavito, who walked in the first inning, drove in six runs and scored five with his 4-for-4 explosion. His homers — for a total of 105 in a five-year career — came in the third with one on, against loser Jerry Walker (4-3); in the fifth (bases empty) and sixth (one on) against Arnie Portocarrero; and in the ninth (bases empty) against ECKRINE Johnson. Three reached the left field bleachers, the other went over the left-center field fence.

Only Lou Gehrig of the Yankees (1933) and Pat Seery of the White Sox (1948) had hit four in one game previously in the AL. Six have done it in the National League with Boston's Bob Lowe (1899), the first, and Gehrig the only one to hit four in succession.

The Indians finished with six homers which were good for all but one of their runs.

Right-hander Gary Bell (5-5) was the winner with Mike Garcia's help in a four-run seventh, first complete game in five starts for the White Sox, beating the Senators with a five-hitter. A hit

Colorful Pageant Presented At Congress
A very impressive Pageant, "Out Of The Dark," under the direction of Mrs. Flossie M. Campbell of McGhee, Ark., was presented Wednesday evening at the State Sunday School, B. T. U., and Usher Board Congress which is now in progress at Yerger High School.

This Pageant depicted the rise of the Negro from slavery to this present day progress, demonstrating his contribution to the world of Religion, Music, Education, Science, and the defense of his country, with reference to the lives of such great personalities as Benjamin Banneker, Paul Lawrence Dunbar, Booker T. Washington and others.

The Southwest District Congress Chorus rendered background music.

In my opinion (you reporter) this was one of the most beautiful and impressive programs that I have ever witnessed.

batter and an error by catcher Hal Naragon, allowing Al Smith to score while attempting an inside-the-park homer, gave the Sox two runs in the first inning against Hal Wodschick (0-1).

Elston Howard's two-run double clinched it for the Yankees as they scored four in the seventh. It was their 11th victory in their last 13 games and third in a row.

Art Ditmar (4-4) was the winner against Bud Daley (5-4).

Al Kaline drove in four Detroit runs with four hits bringing in the winning run in the eighth with his second single. Reliever Tom Morgan (1-1) was the winner. Mike Torrence (0-1) lost it in relief.

Crown Western Shows Assets Increase

At its Annual Stockholders Meeting, Crown Western Investments, Inc., a Dallas Mutual Fund, reported net assets of $50,402,000, as compared to $4,314,000 at the same time in 1958. The increase of 434% represents new money invested by stockholders and increases in the value of securities held by the two series of stock offered by the fund.

Charles L. Moruzzi, President, reported that at May 31, 1959, assets were invested in 111 different stocks and 2 corporate bonds. During the year over $1,200,000 of bonds and preferred stocks were sold and these monies, together with the proceeds from the sale of new shares, were invested in common stocks. In keeping with the past recovery of the national economy from the 1950-58 recession.

PLATTER MAN

MADISON, N. J. (P)—To Jim Williams of a Montclair, N. J., a platter can be anything from a hit tune to a blue plate special. Williams, known as "Platter Man," sold 250,000 copies of the record "Stand By Me" in 1958. But songwriting, he says, is still a spare time occupation. He prefers working regular hours as a director of food services at the Fairleigh Dickinson University.

W. R. Stephens, president of the Huntingburg Buggy Works, today turned over the reins of the first bakery wagon delivered in Arkansas in recent years to Charles Meyer, Sr., founder of Meyer's Bakeries. The formal ceremony took place at the Arkansas Children's Hospital, where youngsters were taken for rides in the wagon by Meyer and Stephens.

The wagon is an exact replica of the one Charles Meyer, Sr., drove through the streets of Little Rock over 45 years ago when he founded Meyer's Bakeries.

The Huntingburg Buggy Works are presently located in Indiana, but Stephens plans to move the factory to Emmet, Arkansas, this summer, where he is constructing a model of an old western town.

The Buggy Works is a division of Ark-La-Tex Conditioning Corp., which is a subsidiary of Arkansas-Louisiana Gas Company, of which W. R. Stephens is president.

Meyer's Bakeries is Arkansas' largest independent bakery with plants in Little Rock, Pine Bluff, Hope, Texarkana, Blytheville, and Jonesboro. Charles Meyer, Sr., founder of the company, is still active in its management.

The Hercules, with a take-off weight of 50 tons, hauls the drones to 30,000 feet before releasing them as free-flying targets. The Firebees, 17 feet long with a wingspan of 11 feet, fly over 500 m.p.h. at 50,000 feet.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio House passed and sent to the Senate a resolution to lower the voting age from 21 to 18 years. If approved, the issue will be submitted to the voters in November.

Man Charged With Unlawful Flight

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—One of two men charged in a North Little Rock hold-up was held here today on a federal charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for robbery.

Charles Jefferson Hollis, 34, of Collinsville, Ill., was arrested by FBI agents at Collinsville last week. He was held in lieu of $20,000 bond.

Hollis and John Francis Kinney, 47, of St. Louis, are charged with robbing William Bailey Ferguson of $13,000 at his North Little Rock home in December, 1957.

Both men had fought extradition to Arkansas after they were originally arrested in July, 1958, but Kinney made a surprise appearance at Little Rock last November and was released on $15,000 bond.

Hollis was indicted later by a federal grand jury for unlawful flight to void prosecution for robbery.

Atlantic Group to Ask Joint Aid Program

LONDON (AP) — The Atlantic Congress would up its first convention today with a recommendation to NATO governments for a massive joint foreign aid program by all countries in the alliance.

The Congress, an informal Parliament of 850 citizens from 14 NATO countries, recommended a sustained effort to help undeveloped peoples.

The Congress also recommended the establishment of a new economic cooperation organization embracing countries of the alliance.

The proposal for the foreign aid program received strong support from Eric Johnston, president of the American Motion Picture Assn.

Johnston said the people of the United States are no longer willing to put up all funds for foreign aid. "Now that Europe has recovered in large measure, all countries in the alliance should help," he said.

The six-day Congress, which had as its prime purpose the increase of harmony between NATO countries, often was filled with discord.

France's insistence on complete control of any atomic stockpiles on French territory ruffled feelings in the American and British delegations.

Assassination Try Brings Sentence

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A middle-aged secretary who fell in love with her employer began two years' problem today or attempting to have his wife assassinated by a hired killer.

Judge Joseph E. Gold imposed the sentence Tuesday after Aulinc Weiss, 48, pleaded guilty at a hearing to solicitation to commit murder.

Judge Gold stipulated that Miss Weiss undergo psychiatric treatment at least once a month for the next two years and that she be given periodic reports on her emotional stability.

Miss Weiss's intended victim was Muriel Griffin, 53, wife of Willard K. Griffin, 58-year-old advertising executive.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Jack M. Myers said the Griffins did not want to prosecute Miss Weiss but wanted to help her.

She was arrested last Feb. 5 after a policeman posed as an imported killer from New York and received from her a $150 down payment on a $500 murder fee. Police acted on a tip from a man in whom Miss Weiss confided.

"I had fallen in love with Mr. Griffin," detective Francis Ruff read from a statement she gave police. "I felt I wanted a decent home life. I was under the impression he was in love with me. I know I did wrong but I did it because I was very much in love with him."

Rock Tossing Guitar Players Are Fined

HENDERSON, Tenn. (AP) — Three Hillbilly guitar players from Nashville, Tenn., were fined $100 each yesterday for slingshot vandalism. They also drew suspended sentences of 30 days in jail.

Roy M. Huskey, 30, Basil E. Barnett, Jr., 29, and Thomas M. Williams, 24, all pleaded guilty to two counts each of shooting missiles dangerous to life and property.

The hearing was their third separate encounter with the law resulting from a slingshot window-breaking spree while driving from Nashville toward Corpus Christi, Tex., April 7.

The three men served 60 days in jail and paid $300 fines in West Memphis, Ark. They are free under $1,000 bond each while awaiting trial in Memphis on the shooting missiles charge.

At the general sessions court hearing here, Judge Willard Smith said the men must pay damages totaling $97.50 for broken windows at a private home and at the elementary school.

The men are members of the Don Gibson band. They were enroute to Corpus Christi to play a date when they were arrested. They said they were shooting the slingshots to help while away the time.

The state of Louisiana was admitted to the union in 1812. W. C. Claiborne was governor.

Sun Peeps Out, Golf Play Easier

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The sun peeped out today and made the going easier for players in the state Women's Gold Championship tournament at Riverdale Country Club.

Hard rains soaked the course yesterday before match play got under way, but the weather let up this morning after a light shower.

Mrs. J. J. Miller of Hot Springs pushed ahead on her bid for a fourth straight championship.

School Dist. Asks Dismissal of Suit

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Dollarway School District today renewed its application for dismissal of a school integration suit, in which it is defendant.

The edictorial said three Negro pupils seeking to be admitted to an all-white school had not followed the proper administrative procedures and that, therefore, the suit is premature.

The brief pleading, submitted to U. S. District Court, is similar to one filed earlier before the case had been transferred from a three-judge court to a single jurist, District Judge Axel J. Beck of Sioux Falls, S. D., for trial.

In the previous instance, the Negro plaintiffs came back with a reply that they had exhausted administrative remedies and that it would be futile for them to try to obtain the requested admittance under the Arkansas pupil assignment law.

The case was transferred from the three-judge panel to Judge Beck on ground that no constitutional question sufficient to require a special court was involved. Trial is set for June 17.

Recall Election Set for June 16

CLINTON, Ark. (AP) — The Van Buren County Election Commission yesterday set June 16 as the date for a recall election for four members of the school board at Alread, about 20 miles west of Clinton.

Two sets of petitions asking the recall were filed yesterday. County Clerk Mrs. Beatrice Cannady said one set of petitions called for removal of Board members Clyn Emerson, Jeri Hefner and Ulysses Watson. The me failed to cooperate with the state Department of Education and "fired competent local teachers and hired outside teachers at higher salaries."

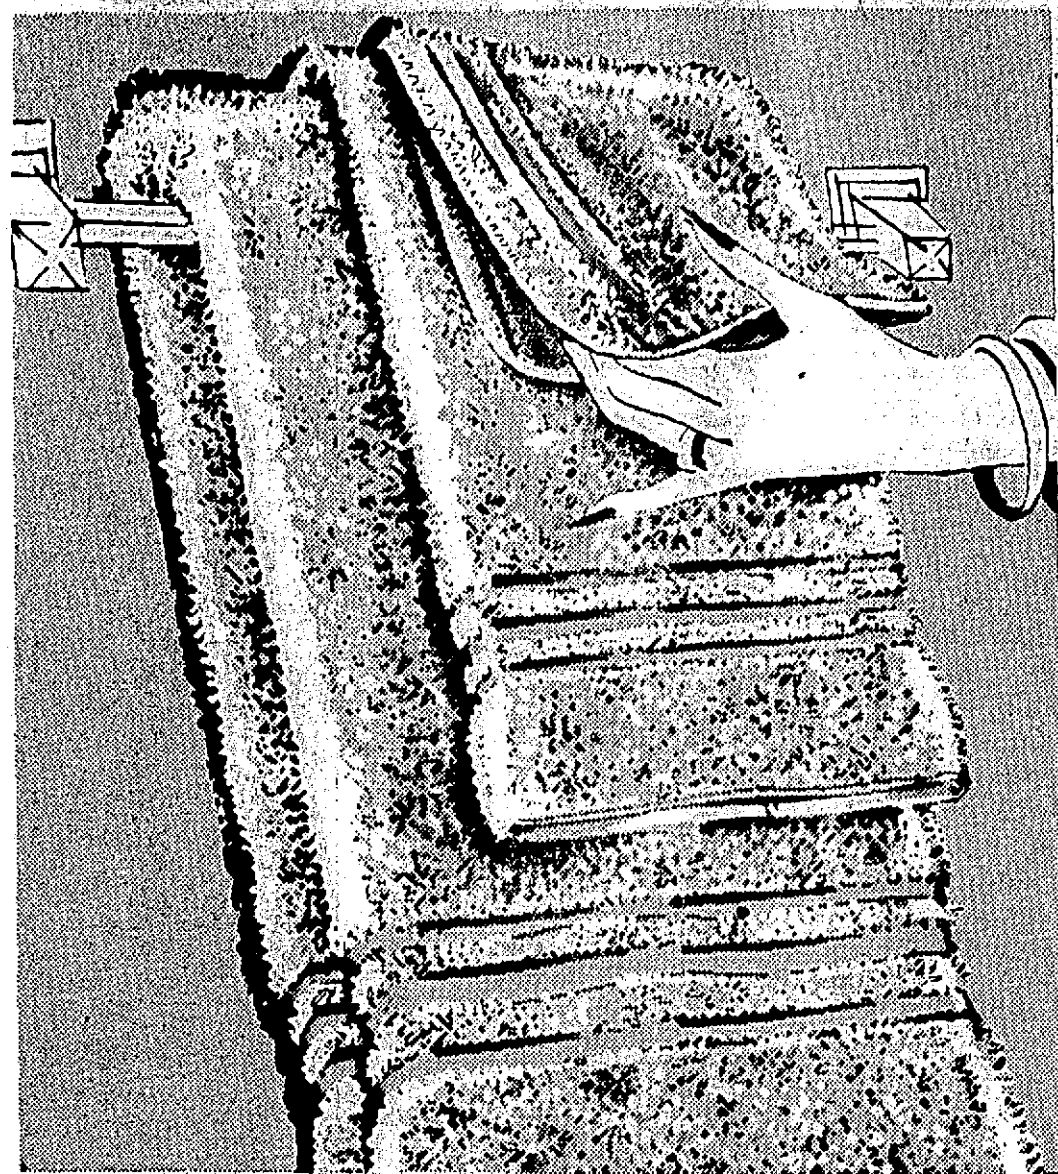

Mrs. Cannady said the second set of petitions asked recall of Elda Emerson, the other Board member. No reason was given.

Baltimore was the birthplace (1886) of Admiral Raymond Ames Spruance, Commander, Central Pacific Fleet, during World War II.

Chicken, Ham, Beef Bargains for Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hot weather or no, the nation's supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores will be featuring roast beef, ham and trying chicken this weekend.

With the advent of warm weather, many stores tend to feature meats which can be prepared with a minimum of additional heat from the oven, or those which can be adapted to the growing fashion for outdoor cooking.

This week, however, some stores are featuring ribs of beef and top or bottom round roasts. The bargains do not reflect any change in the beef market, meat buyers say. They're described more as personal specialties to give beef lovers a shot at their favorite meat. Precooked hams don't add too much heat to the housewife's kitchen and they can be sliced cold.

Eggs continue at bargain levels, with prices marked down 1 to 3 cents even over a wide area. More fresh fruits and vegetables are fighting for shelf space in produce departments. Locally grown peas, snap beans, squash and blueberries add to the pressure this week.

Use this week. Best vegetable buys are peas, beans, new yellow onions, new cabbage, squash, spinach, radishes, snap beans, green onions, parsley and lettuce, particularly where available from nearby fields.

Other good buys include potatoes, carrots, endive, escarole and asparagus. Outstanding fruit bargains include peaches, nectarines, lemons, mangoes, pineapples, bananas and apples. Peaches already are arriving in large numbers from Southern and Southern states, while California's crop is expected to run about 10 per cent ahead of 1938.

Beat Travel Cost, Simply Stay at Home

United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—One way to beat the high cost of travel this summer is let your wife handle the tipping. Another is to a home.

A new book on the subject, written by a fellow who ought to know, recommends for and against these solutions, respectively. The author is Michael Frome.

has and apples. Peaches already are arriving in large numbers from Southern and Southern states, while California's crop is expected to run about 10 per cent ahead of 1938.

for many years travel editor of the American Automobile Association, says if you're smart you still can get out on the road, have fun, and come home with all your gold fillings.

His book is called "Better Vacations for Your Money." Frome says if all you have in mind is saving your dough, you better forget the whole thing. He does have lots of ideas though for easing the pain.

Tipping Not Required
"You don't have to tip anybody, anywhere, anything," counsels traveler Frome. "You do so only because you want to, in appreciation for service well-rendered." He must have known you won't believe this. That's why he says let your wife do it.

Women are especially sensible in matters relating to tipping, but not foolish, he says. It must be true, too, because he heard many a cab driver say the same thing, sort of, "Frome, being an old man, told

Salmon Mousse Is Served in Baskets of Melba Toast

BELIGHTFUL way to put a little spring into appetites is to serve salmon mousse in melba toast baskets—a real delicacy.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Here's another recipe perfect for warmer weather and appetites that need tempting.

The baskets for the salmon mousse are made of Melba toast, originally created by Escoffier at the Savoy Hotel in London for Dame Nellie Melba. However, today you can get it in many variations: rye, white or wholewheat, in snack rounds, in pumpkin-like, salty rye and in garlic and now in onion rounds.

This year's pack of salmon will be only about half as large as last year, and the price will up by about 20 per cent. Therefore use it wisely in the best recipes you can find. We think this is one of them.

Salmon Mousse in Melba Baskets
(Makes 6 servings)

Thirteen wholewheat or white Melba rounds, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/2 cup cold water, 2 eggs, separated, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2-pound can salmon, 1/4 cup finely diced cucumber, 1/4 cup chopped parsley, 1/4 cup commercial sour cream or 1/4 cup heavy cream, whipped.

Sprinkle gelatin over water in a cup. Beat egg yolks. In the top of a double boiler combine egg yolks, lemon juice and rind, mustard and salt. Cook over hot water stirring until mixture is smooth and slightly thickened. Remove from heat and stir in gelatin. Blend in salmon cucumber and parsley. Beat egg whites stiff. Fold egg whites then the sour cream or whipped cream into the salmon mixture. Chill until almost stiff. Line six custard cups with Melba rounds. (Place one on the bottom of each cup and stand four around the sides.) Spoon the salmon mixture into the cups keeping the four Melba rounds close to the sides of the cups. Chill until firm. Slide Melba baskets from custard cups. Arrange them on a chilled serving platter and garnish with crisp salad greens and cucumber slices.

Governor Forum Delayed Indefinitely

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Radio Station KTHS announced yesterday that an open forum radio program featuring Govs. Orval E. Faubus and Orville Freeman of Minnesota has been indefinitely postponed.

The program was scheduled for tomorrow night. Station officials said Freeman was unable to participate because of a special session of the Minnesota Legislature.

KTHS and station WCCO planned to carry program jointly, covering a large portion of the country. Listeners could have telephoned questions, directed at the governors, to the stations.

Black Bear Killed in Baltimore

BALTIMORE (AP)—City police report they shot and killed a large black bear in downtown Baltimore about 4:15 a.m. today. Somewhat proudly, officers said they think it was the same elusive bear that gave Washington police so much trouble recently.

Two men spotted the animal late Tuesday night near a cemetery in the southwest section. Police were alerted. Some 100 officers joined in the hunt.

The bear wandered in and out of alleys, with dogs at its heels. The hunt ended about five hours later, when police, felled the animal with a high-powered rifle. It took four policemen to load it into a wagon.

Young Girl Killed in Auto Wreck

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP) — One teen-aged girl was killed and another injured here yesterday in a freak automobile accident.

The victim, Barbara Ann Tagg, 16, and Faye Mullins, 14, were riding on the fenders of a car driven by Mrs. Verna Mae Mullins, Barbara's sister.

Mrs. Mullins said the muffler of the car fell off and she tried to stop suddenly. The girls were thrown off the car and it ran over them.

Faye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mullins of nearby Johnstown, was hospitalized here with serious injuries.

Barbara was the daughter of Mrs. Edith Teague of Johnstown.

Utility Jurisdiction Dispute Continues

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A hearing into a territorial dispute between two utilities at Forrest City continued today before the Arkansas Public Service Commission.

The Woodruff Electric Co. operative is battling Arkansas Power and Light Co. in the case.

Woodruff contends it should be awarded some APL territory in the area to compensate for territory it lost to APL when Forrest City annexed an industrial area recently.

APL is resisting, "on ground it did not participate in the territory transfer and is entitled to the territory since it has been assigned to serve all of Forrest City."

Lewis Robinson, PSC chairman, said he expected the hearing to last a week. A commission ruling is not expected for about a month.

For the time being, industry seemed to have expanded its capacity beyond the demands of its customers.

But now that business can shift a new boom on the way, more and more firms are dusting off expansion plans they had put on the shelf during their days of caution.

Many of them are carrying over some of their recession-born thinking that the best spending could be for new equipment that would help them cut costs.

Those who already had modern equipment in those days were able to pare operating expenses significantly. Their output per man, hour, of labor rose, steadily. In part this kept many of them from rehiring workers.

But now there's evidence that this is changing. Costs are reported rising again with new wage contracts. And more firms as a result are coming into the market for labor saving machinery.

Only Top Men Can Settle Berlin Issue

By JAMES MAROW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev has proved his point: that only the top men—the "heavyweights"—can call the shots or really settle anything and that their foreign ministers are only their messenger boys.

The month-old Geneva meeting of the ministers — American, Soviet, British, French — has become almost farcical. Four weeks of talking and nothing accomplished, nothing settled.

Dead-end Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko can't agree, decide or yield on anything unless his boss, Khrushchev, says so. So far Khrushchev has only told him to be polite, stand still, and keep his mouth open.

The lead on The Associated Press story out of Geneva after Tuesday's session — as fruitless as any which preceded it — was like a pathetic footnote on a shadow dance.

It said: "The Western foreign ministers showed deep concern today that the Geneva conference may collapse unless Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev intervenes quickly to break the deadlock."

That has been true from the beginning. Nobody — certainly not the Western ministers — had any illusion to the contrary. Every thing depended on Khrushchev. Gromyko was just his frontman.

The only reason he permitted the ministers' meeting at all was because the West — principally Eisenhower — had insisted on it as a necessary preliminary to a later summit meeting between Eisenhower and Khrushchev.

Eisenhower actually laid down two conditions for a summit conference: First, the foreign ministers must meet; second, they must show some progress, which would mean agreement, or concessions, on something.

But there had always been an underlying irony in the Presidents' requirements: any concession or agreement by the Soviets at Geneva would actually be a concession by Khrushchev, which he could just as well have made at a summit meeting.

Spanish Vets Name New Commander

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Department of United Spanish American War Veterans yesterday elected B. F. Adams of Conway as department commander as the group closed an annual meeting here.

John Heern of Jonesboro was named senior vice commander and William A. Davis of Hot Springs was elected junior vice commander.

Mrs. Sid Wise of Little Rock was elected president of the auxiliary.

Truck Driver Goes on a Crime Spree

INDEPENDENCE, Calif. (AP) — A jobless truck driver, who boasted of launching a crime spree by slaying his blind father-in-law, committed suicide in Death Valley as the law closed in on him.

The sheriff at Las Vegas, Nev., said that Richard A. Pritchard, 29, shot himself as deputies tracked him down in the desert.

Pritchard was sought in connection with the disappearance of James Marrow, who has not been seen for more than a week. Officers said Pritchard told a friend he killed Marrow, his father-in-law, and hid the body among rocks near Los Angeles.

Officers said Pritchard died without indicating Marrow's whereabouts. A search for the missing man is continuing.

Chief products of the Somalilands in east Africa (British, French, Italian) are hides, ivory and incense.

Bea's eyes were wide - awake. "What deed?" and "who told you it was worthless?"

"The man at the Office of Records. It isn't recorded. And Mr. Ward's deed has been recorded 40 years."

"Mr. Ward?" The effect of his name on Bea was similar to the shock Kathie had felt in the Office of Records. She sat up. "Where does Sam's grandfather come into this?"

"My deed covers his property, they told me. The land the Poinciana Hotel is on."

"Bea stared at her, her eyes widening. At last she said in an overwhelmed voice, 'This I must see. Where is your deed, Kathie?'"

"In a safe-deposit box in Honolulu. The older woman lifted a plucked eyebrow. 'You didn't lose any time putting it there, did you?'"

"Someone has been trying to steal it from me."

"What?"

"I thought perhaps you knew something that could explain the whole thing," Kathie told her.

"Did you talk to Mr. Ward about it?"

"Yes," Kathie told her about her interview with Sam's grandfather.

Bea sprang up and began walking up and down the room. Her rather gushy social pose had fallen away, and the woman Kathie now saw was shrewd and purposeful and intense, a woman — the girl somehow sensed — who could be dangerous.

"I'm only guessing myself, Kathie," she said. "I've heard my father speak of it. And apparently this is what happened. Uncle Job was a pretty gay bachelor. My father was already married and settled down at the time it seems Uncle Job came to him in the middle of the night and told him his life had been threatened. Something about a quarrel arising out of a poker game. He had to leave the islands hurriedly."

She paused and then went on, almost absently, as if she were thinking something out while she talked. "A few days after he left, a man's body was found on the slopes of Diamond Head. He was a man Uncle Job had been seen with, and the police wanted to question him. Naturally, when they discovered how hastily Uncle Job had left Hawaii..."

Bea shrugged, then continued: "The police never found him, and Uncle Job never again communicated with any of the family. He simply vanished into thin air. That's why I got such a start when I heard you speak his name at Sam's party on the Lullwater that night. He was a sort of bogeyman to us children growing up. We heard his name only in hushed whispers—you know the sort of thing! But Father was loyal. He always said he never believed Job was a murderer."

Kathie, sitting wide-eyed on the little hassock, had gone very pale.

Job Hammer may have been only a whispered name to Bea Powers, but to the girl, hearing the story for the first time, the name brought up the image of a stern, harsh-voiced old man who had taken the place of both parents for almost all her remembered life, a man she had both hated and respected, a man who on his deathbed less than 30 days ago had wrung both pity and affection from her young heart by saying, "I've been a hard parent, Kathie. I've been too old to understand a young one like you."

"I'm a beast!" Bea said in self-reproach. "I didn't even think that it might be a shock to you."

"I'm all right," Kathie insisted. "Please tell me—"

"She" Bea said, "Just leave it to me. I've got a hunch that may help us. But I've got to dig up some more information first."

to me. I've got a hunch that may help us. But I've got to dig up some more information first."

They heard the crunch of the car tires on the drive and Lellani's voice, humming a phrase of music.

And under the weight of their urgings, Kathie found herself going alone to the room she shared with Lellani to take a nap. She was not sleepy, but she was not sorry to be alone in the shuttered room with time to sort out her mulling thoughts and to try to adjust herself to the new picture Bea had given her of the great uncle with whom she had lived for so long.

Could he have murdered a man?

Alex flew over Friday evening just in time to go with them to the little Lellani and Kathie met him at the airport. Here was Alex in the flesh, lean and tall and tanned, with the oversized smile that was his alone, and an eager warmth in his eyes when he greeted her.

Lellani had brought some idols and looping one over Alex's head and kissing him warmly, she said, "Now it's our turn."

Kathie felt a stab of jealousy when she saw his arm encircle Lellani, saw her lay her hands affectionately on his coat lapel, saw their lips meet. But then, even while he was holding Lellani, Alex looked over her shoulder and said, "Well, Kathie, with a teasing gleam in his eyes."

She tossed her head and said, "Will you kiss me goodbye when you leave?"

"Is that a promise?"

Lellani turned to look at her, and her eyes darkened strangely.

They piled into the front seat of Lellani's car, Lellani driving, Kathie sitting in the middle, knotted her hand in her lap, hoping to hide their trembling. The wonderful excitement of Alex's presence was almost more than she could bear.

Segregation Group to Aid Watson School

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Minutemen Association has offered to aid the Watson Chapel school district in any future integration dispute. School Supt. L.D. Owen said yesterday.

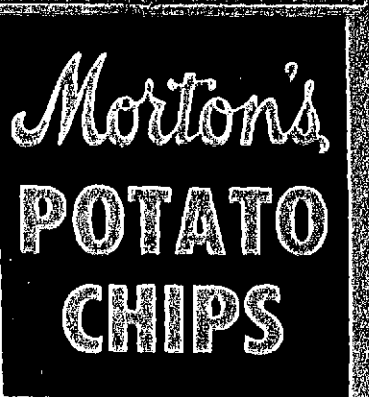

Owen said a group of Minutemen, when it did not identify, had offered their services if needed to fight integration. The Watson Chapel district, near Pine Bluff, operates separate schools for whites and Negroes. Owen said Negro children have made no effort to enter the white school.

The Minutemen also asked if Watson Chapel teachers had signed affidavits stating the organization to which they belong, as required by Act 10 of 1958. The affidavit law was upheld Monday by a federal court. Watson said all teachers had signed the statements.

The Minutemen gained prominence recently by condemning integration and circulating certain books, notably "The Diary of Anne Frank."

Private School Tax Ruling Expected Soon

By BOB HARING

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A decision on application by Little Rock private high schools for federal Revenue Service tax exemption on certificates should be made shortly, IRS Commissioner Daniel Latham said today.

Latham, at a press conference, said he did not know how many of the schools wanted the exemption. The public high schools were closed last fall had applied for the exemption, which would allow contributions to the schools to be deducted on individual income tax returns.

Latham said the applications are now under study in Washington and some action should be taken "reasonably shortly."

Personally, Latham said, he feels that if such high schools receive state aid "in an area which is under court decree there is a serious question on whether they will qualify" for the exemption certificate. The certificates are given to private non-profit schools and other institutions which depend on donations.

Latham added, however, that donations to state colleges—such as the University of Arkansas—tax deductible because the IRS considered them as donations to the state.

Little Rock IRS officials also said they did not know what private schools had asked for exemption certificates.

It became known some months ago that a query had been submitted on whether contributions to T. J. Roney High School were deductible. Roney depends solely on contributions.

Other private high schools which have been opened here charge tuition. To a question about an IRS investigation of some returns of Gov. Orval E. Faubus several months ago, Latham said, "that has been disposed of." He said the disposition was secret. Other officials had in effect said the same thing previously.

He also said that he was forbidden by law to say whether or not Louisiana Gov. Earl Long, now in a Texas hospital, was under a tax investigation.

Regional IRS Commissioner Frank White of Dallas, who accompanied Latham, said in reply to a question that there were no personnel changes as a direct result of the investigation of Faubus.

Latham reviewed problems of the IRS and its relation to state income tax agencies. He cited personnel as a major problem, and said the service intends to ask for additional funds in its 1961 budget request to hire additional investigators.

Faubus Sees No Bolt by the South

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus said today he does not think the South will bolt the Democratic National Convention.

In reply to a question at a news conference, Faubus said, "I think every effort will be made by the South to remain in the Democratic convention and in the party." Faubus had been asked if he had any plans to bolt the 1960 convention in Los Angeles.

Faubus said he now plans to attend the convention, but his actions will be "based on the situation at that time, according to what transpires."

The governor raised the subject himself with a comment on a recent statement by Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler that Democrats probably would not nominate anyone from the South or Southwestern because of the civil rights issue.

Asked if he thought Butler knew what was going on in the Democratic Party, Faubus replied, "I think (Adlai) Stevenson came nearer speaking for the party than Butler does now and look how out of touch he (Stevenson) was." The conference was to Stevenson's two defeats for president as Democratic nominee.

Asked to comment on a statement by President Eisenhower that he had little faith in the ability of laws to eliminate prejudice in the racial situation, Faubus said, "That's what I have been saying all the time."

Wheat Crop Estimate 1.1 Million Bushels

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department today forecast this year's wheat crop at a surplus—enlarging 1,181,588,000 bushels.

The estimate, the first for the combined winter and spring crops, compares with last year's record—1,492,218,000 bushels—and with the 10-year (1948-57) average of 1,074,790,000 bushels.

The prospective crop compares with official forecasts that around a billion bushels would meet domestic and export market needs. The excess would be added to a record reserve and surplus of 1,285,000,000 bushels accumulated from past crops.

Most of the surplus is held by the government under a farm price support program. Wheat is being produced under a crop control program which the Eisenhower administration says is a complete failure. It is pressing for new legislation.
